Day 1 :

Breakfast at 8, departure on horseback at 9.30. It's hard to realize that we are so close to Paris. We are not far at all from the turmoils of the big city for today's ride. We leave Magny les Hameaux to ride through the ate forest of Versailles and reach St Cyr l'Ecole and the royal gates of the Versailles palace. Majestic, impressive, extremely large, we'll ride through the portal of the most celebrated king of France. We'll ride along the Grand Canal, get close to the Grand Trianon. Have picnic by the Saint Antoine nursery. Afternoon: we'll go to the Place d'Armes, rhe Swiss Guards basin and the State forest of Versailles. Back to our guesthouse, dinner and night at Magny les Hameaux.

Day 2 : breakfast at 8, departure on horseback at about 9.30. Riding in the Chevreuse valley, we'll circle the city of Chevreuse and its 11th century castle. Picnic and visit of the Breteuil Castle, built in the 16th century in the Louis 12th style; the castle is beautifully furnished, the site is enhanced by 50 Musée Grévin wax figures. Perrault tTales exhibition. Back to the guesthouse, dinner and night at Magny les Hameaux.

Day 3 : Breakfast at 8, departure on horseback at about 9.30. We'll ride towards the remains of the Port Royal Abbey, which we'll circle along wooded pathways. We'll proceed through a variety of landscapes, forests, flatlands and marshes; we'll go towards the Dampierre castle and we'll see the strange iron house on our way. This house was designed by Bibarrios Duclos, an engineer who worked with Gustave Eiffel. It was built at the end of the 19th century and displayed at the 1889 Exposition Universelle of Paris. We'll go inside the castle park to have picnic. We'll visit the castle after the meal. Back to the guesthouse through flatlands, dinner and night at Magny les Hameaux.

At 6 o'clock, we'll take you to the St Rémy les Chevreuse railway station, or you may stay another night at the guesthouse.
